

22nd Yukon Riverside Arts Festival

- presents -

scan me!

Gallery HOP!

Thursday
June 9th
7 to 10 pm
A fun art crawl through Dawson City!

1

At Sweet Sweet Yukon
(CIBC building, downstairs, back entrance)

Natasha Henderson
"Under The Yukon Sky"

Oil paintings

A series of paintings focusing on the somewhat magical sky of the Yukon, and the equally magical things that happen under that sky.

Sweet Sweet Yukon
will be selling delicious
mini-churros for this evening only!!

2

At Dawson City Cannabis
(CIBC building, upstairs)

Young Jim
"Really nice Colorful Drawings"

Drawings

Young Jim has been up to all sorts of pleasant things lately. Come see for yourself his really nice colorful drawings and find out.

3

At the Dawson Daily News

"Riverside Review"

Publication launch and open house at the Dawson Daily News
More to come!

4

At Joey's Camper – parked between Red Mammoth Bistro
and True North (2nd Ave)

Joey O'Neil
"Ever Ahead: Cartomancy Camper"

Watercolour illustrations

Road trip themes from Joey O'Neil's musical album, Ever Ahead, are illustrated in watercolour and wallpapered in her mobile home, displaying the progress of 78 tarot card images. What better than a divinatory tool to look ever ahead? Joey makes folk music about trucks and dogs. She is inspired by her canine copilot and their countless cross-country adventures together.

5

At Confluence Gallery
(SOVA)

"Expanded Field"

Group Exhibit

Featuring works by Amy Ball, Ange Bonnici, Angela Edmonds, Basia Hinton, Annie Kierans, Jenni Matchett, Andy Pelletier, and Bo Yeung

6

At the Tr'ondëk Hwëch'in
Youth Center
Artwork by Local Youth

7

At Fortymile Gold

Leslie Chapman
"Fortymile Gold open studio"

20k gold jewelry

All are welcome to visit Leslie's studio gallery to see her new work, as well as original art by many other Yukon artists. Leslie is a self-taught goldsmith working with natural 20k gold and gems.

8 & 9

At Fortymile Gold and Dancing
Moose

Riley Brennan
"Through a Yukon Window"

Fused Glass

A little selection of mini glass windows and light-sticks, that I made during this past very, very, long winter. Dawson City, so many years now. An intense little town where folks better find something riveting to do all winter. I found glass and paint, thankfully.

10

At Dënäkär Zho – KIAC Ballroom
Alex Murphy
"Anthology of Weeds Wildflowers"
Artist Talk and Exhibition reception

11

At Bombay Peggy's

Philomène CL
"Blooms"

Ceramics

Hand-built vases with inlay coloured porcelain & natural brown speckled clay. Come check out some fun vases for those spring blooms. "I have been making pottery in my off-grid studio on the west side. I am inspired and aim to highlight the beauty of natural materials."

12

At the old Youth Center
(front street)

Aleks Bartosik and Jimmy
Boddie
"Northern Lights (2022)"

Mixed media installation

Art installation by Aleks Bartosik with sound performances with Jimmy Boddie. The artists hope the installation shows its interaction with the natural elements that surround it, such as sunlight, wind, or rain. as they amplify that play with its surfaces, reflections, and glares through sound and projections. inviting the viewer to play along with its colours.

13

At Dawson City Museum

The following exhibits are presented in partnership with the Dawson City Museum. Their brand new exhibits will also be open to the public free of charge this evening!

(Foyer)

Attallah Steele
"In ToTo (Inclusive)"

Acrylic Paintings

Not until we are lost do we begin to understand ourselves and there is no certainty, there is only adventure. Tallia is a young artist from Jamaica. She started off with Mandala Paintings and now she is exploring Landscape and Nature.

(Gift Shop)

Shizuka Yoshimura
"My Little Planet"

Ink Drawings, Screen Prints, Photography, Jewelry

This exhibition will showcase ink drawings inspired by the Spring air of Dawson, zines, jewelry, photographs and screen-prints. Come and visit this small chaotic universe! Shizuka is a visual artist, born and raised in Japan. Her work encapsulates unique moments that she encounters in her daily life, especially in nature.

(Front Lawn)

Remi Dean
"Recent works"

Wood craft/weaving

Remi is exhibiting a pair of freshly built basket style dog sleds made out of green White Birch. Remi Dean is inspired by running dogs and loves working with his hands using natural materials.

(Auditorium)

Various Artists
"Stranger Things (done
under the Midnight Sun)"

Experimental Short Films

Seven beautiful, weird and mesmerizing short films by Yukon filmmakers Kim Edgar, Sol Suarez, Jonny Klynkramer, Nicole Lynn Rayburn, Aleks Bartosik and Jimmy Boddie, played on a loop at the Museum's mini cinema.